George William Hanes Trustee Records Wilmington Twp. DeKalb County, IN 1882-1903

Indexed by
Roselyn Wells

Introduction

These records, that were in the Hanes family for 100 years, include School Transfers, listing of teachers, road and county expenses for Wilmington Twp. and reimbursement for sheep killed by dogs.

George William and Harriet Altenburg Hanes, with their family, lived 2 miles west of Butler. They were very active socially and politically and were amongst the first settlers of DeKalb County. I am not sure what years George William Hanes was actively the Trustee of Wilmington Township.

Please note that the index was very hard to do because of the time period of the writing. The handwriting is beautiful until you try to figure out what names are written, trying to be as accurate as possible. Please be patient and realize the capital I in a name looked an awful lot like the capital J. S's and G's are easily confused. Also n, u, m, r, and s's were difficult. It was copied in the original handwriting so you are able to check it for accuracy. Keep in mind, names were spelled phonically sometimes so don't give up!

These records were in the possession of Harriet Altenburg Hanes, after her husband died. They were kept up by someone and presumably given back to her. George William passed away in 1897. Clara Hanes McCague had them next and when her estate was settled, Florence Wagner Hardin received them. Tom Hardin, her son, then gave them to the James Wells family (James, Roselyn, Amanda, and Jaime). James is the great-grandson of George. Many thanks to Tom and to the whole Hanes-Altenburg family for preserving their family history and DeKalb County history.
